PETROLEUM HIGH SCHOOL

Within these walls, our school days were spent.
They will never, to us, lose their sentiment,
Here we learned the Golden Rule,
As well as learning loyalty to one's school.
Wherever we go, the knowledge which we received
From dear old P.H.S. will help us more than we believed.
Goodbye, Petroleum, we'll remember you always,
For you were the scene of those happy school days.

DEDICATION

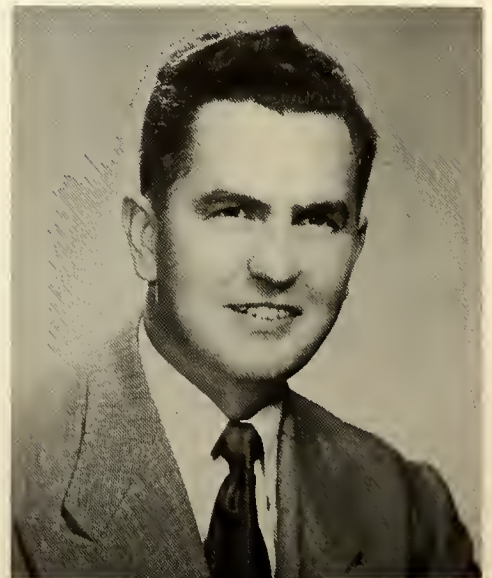

We must not complacently accept the privileges of freedom which were fought for with blood, and then forget the responsibilities it entails. As our ancestors have given this freedom to us, so we shall fight to keep this freedom for our posterity. With this in mind, we, the Seniors of 1957, dedicate our annual to the freedom of our great country.

TRATION

Principal of Petroleum High School

"Life is a perpetual process of learning and forgetting. Your happiness and success, or dismay or failure depend on the things you choose to remember and overlook."

PHYLLIS LAUTZENHEISER

Sponsor of Senior Class

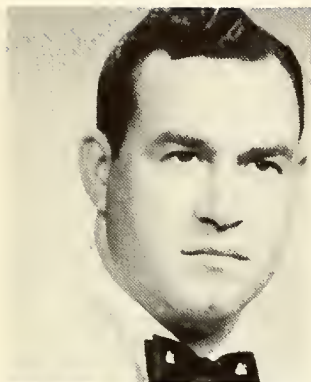

"Years come and go, each contributing its share to the passing picture of life. You, as seniors, have added your intangible bit to this picture. Let us hope also received from us something which will enrich your entire life. May the friendship created here go with each of us to cheer us in hours of trouble and times of victory. We have appreciated knowing you and look forward to seeing you often and learning of your future successes."

GHOST HOUSE

March 15 and 16, 1956

JUNIOR PLAY

A young man, William Harrison, inherits a southern mansion, complete with buried treasure and a curse on the Harrison name. His girl friend, Gloria, and her family, and his lawyer accompany him to the south. As midnight nears, ghostly events add to a thriller and holds the audience spellbound. Of course there is a villain, a few persons who appear harmless, but are otherwise, and the usual comedy characters. Between ghosts and romances, the mystery is finally solved as to where the treasure was hidden.

SENIOR PLAY

Ambrose Groves and Bert Miller, a couple of would-be comedians, get kicked off a train in the middle of the desert. This situation lays the foundation for the rootin'est, tootin'est, funniest satire about the old West you ever saw. In this thriller, the sheriff is crooked, and with his sidekicks, try to get the hotel away from its heirs. The unusual setting makes this play an outstanding performance.

MOTTO
With the ropes of the past,

CLASS HISTORY

Petroleum Panthers from first to twelfth grade.

From the first year to senior year the class of "57" has struggled to walk the tight rope of education. Our teachers as ringmasters directing our progress along the tight rope have contributed much to our knowledge.

Our first year in high school, with all the background of education, we were ready to begin the four high school years. Starting out on the tightrope toward graduation in our Freshman year were: Donald Addington, Kermit Addington, Betty Barnes, Janice Bates, Lavelle Bower, Dallis Bunch, Judy Breedlove, George Carnes, Judy Gerber, Mary Jane Grimm, Jill Harshman, Lois Leader, Amos Miller, Donnie Murray, Don Okey, Jim Ramseyer, Pauline Ramseyer, Jerry Reaser, Pat Shane, Carol Taylor, and Karol Williams. Then later in the year Sharon Gregg came to join the tightrope walking team. Our officers for this year were President-Jill Harshman; Vice-President-Betty Barnes; Secretary-Pauline Ramseyer; Treasurer-Jerry Reaser.

With one year of high school experience behind us we began our sophomore year. We could almost feel the greenness wearing off. This year we chose Don Addington as our President, Pauline Ramseyer as our Vice President, George Carnes as our Secretary, Jill Harshman as our Treasurer. Mrs. Lautzenheiser was our sponsor. We gained two new members; Doris Brickey and Phyllis Ellison. We lost Pat Shane this year.

Upon returning for our Junior year we discovered these students missing: Kermit Addington, Lavelle Bower, and Doris Brickey. This year Jill Harshman was our President. Her Vice President was Don Addington, Secretary-Phyllis Ellison, Treasurer-Pauline Ramseyer. During this year our money making projects were: selling magazines, concessions at ballgames, Christmas candy, scrap drive, and a bake sale. Our class play "Ghost House" was presented this year.

During the summer and Senior year via the preacher we lost 4 members (they got married). They were Betty Barnes, Sharon Gregg, Dallis Bunch, and Judy Breedlove. Two others withdrew at the beginning of the year leaving only 13 members to uphold the Senior tradition. They were Amos Miller and Jim Ramseyer.

We presented the western farce "Desperate Ambrose" this year. We also sold Christmas cards, basketball programs, and also disassembled an old threshing machine and sold the junk.

For our class officers this year, we selected Jill Harshman as our President. Jerry Reaser was our Vice President, Phyllis Ellison-Secretary, and Pauline Ramseyer-Treasurer. This year, we published the paper every two weeks. Of course we enjoyed our Senior year more than the others. Spending our school days at PHS was the main reason for this.

PROPHECY OF 1980

Being children at heart and knowing the circus was in town, we decided to go and see what entertainment it had in store for us. As we were walking across the circus grounds, we noticed a semi-truck bearing the names of Ellison and Carnes Inc. Wondering if they could be our old school chums, we ventured over to the truck where we saw Phyllis and George calmly discussing the show over a cup of coffee.

We were very surprised to see them and as we chatted, we learned that some of our other friends had joined the circus. Judy Gerber had been following George to the end of the earth and was now employed as official ticket taker. Judy was so glad to see us that she threw away our top row tickets and promptly showed us to front row seats.

Here, more surprises were in store for us. Accidentally, I tripped over someone's feet. Looking up to apologize, I noticed a very well dressed woman. She looked so familiar that I took a second look to make sure it was Pauline Ramseyer. She had married Don Addington, a United States senator who was running for President. Since we were now sitting beside them, we all decided that a hot dog would taste good before the show.

We signaled the concessionist. We were surprised to see that it was a girl, and even more surprised to see that it was Carol Taylor. After a short visit, she was on her way again selling hot dogs.

The show was now starting, and the ringmaster stepped into the spotlight. Our eyes bulged at the sight of Don Murray. He announced the first act of the show which was a team of girl animal trainers. They were billed under the names of Janice and Jill. These names sounded strangely familiar and sure enough, it was Janice Bates and Jill Harshman. They had a wonderful act with fierce lions and tigers keeping us on the edge of our seats.

As I heard the children screaming with delight, I realized that the clowns were now in the center of the ring. The funniest one of all suddenly ran over to us and began playing jokes. We thought this was rather strange, but we would recognize him even through the paint on his face. You guessed it, Don Okey.

In a moment the scene was changed. The crowd grew tense as a slender girl walked to the end of a pole to which a long line was stretched. As she slowly but skillfully climbed to the top, we recognized her as Karol Kay Williams, an old classmate. Our hearts pounded furiously as we watched her walk the ropes and we were relieved as the act drew to a close.

We watched the rest of the show feeling proud that our classmates had made such wonderful performances.

The parade at the end topped off the day. The elephants were always our favorites, so we watched them very closely. We were amazed as we saw Mary Jane Grimm riding into sight. She made a wonderful elephant rider.

As we were leaving the tent, we noticed a handsome couple sitting very close. It was Jerry Reaser. He had a very pretty young girl with him. You can surely guess who--you can't? Well, keep trying.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1957, do declare this to be our last will and testament on April 27, 1957.

ARTICLE I

To the Juniors, our hopes and dreams of a peaceful tomorrow and also all of the old bubble gum under our desks.

To the Sophomores, our loyalty to the school and hope that they will follow the good example that we have tried to set before them.

To the Freshman, we will our dignity and our ability to get excused from study hall all of the time.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Flick, our admiration of the way he has put up with us from our green freshie days to graduation and may the future classes really appreciate your understanding.

To Mrs. Lautzenheiser, our sponsor, we will our sincere appreciation for all of the headaches we have caused her and we want her to know we truly think of her as a pal and not just a teacher.

To Mr. Schmidt, as he is the Agriculture teacher, we will him all of our old "dirt" so he can cultivate and harvest a better crop of 1958 Seniors.

To Mr. Light, a complete library of psychology books so he won't be in the "Dark" on how to handle next years Seniors and bookkeeping class.

To Mrs. Woolsey, ten yards of flannel because there will be plenty of changes to be made comespring. . Pink or Blue???

To Mrs. Tangeman a bulletin board so she can keep track of Seniors who are supposed to be in Journalism Class the sixth period.

To Dorothy Rose, a supply of pretzels and ability to keep her temper for next year's class play.

To Mrs. Kindlesparger, a class next year that won't filibuster their way out of discussing their Government lesson.

ARTICLE III

I, Jerry Reaser, being of questionable mind and a classy chassey, will my resemblance to Elvis to the eighth grade girls and my Toni Home Permanent Kit to Mary Stratton.

I, Karol Williams, being of sound mind and body, will my old school clothes to my sister, Kit and my ability to graduate to my dear brothers.

I, Carol Taylor, being of able mind and body, will my title "teacher's pet" to Herb Dulinsky and my fondness for anyone of the opposite sex to Linda Pease.

I, Judy Gerber, being of little mind and plenty of body, will my old Diet books, wilted lettuce, carrots, and cottage cheese to Carroll Williams and hope she has better success than I had.

I, Don Okey, being of little mind and plenty body will my secret formula for hair grower so he can have a beard like mine to Gary Isch and my "yellow" fender skirts to who has nerve enough to put them on their car.

I, Don Addington, being of lots of mind and little body, will my Virginia drawl and way with the "Wimmin" to Richard Markley.

I, Pauline Ramseyer, being of some mind and some classy body, will my nickname "Fuzzy" to Charlie Cowens and my ability to tell a snappy story to Carl Pease who never knows any.

I, Donnie Murray, being of a tiny mind and frail body, will my box of sleeping pills to anyone who isn't to sleep through Government Class and get away with it and my ability to smoke in school without getting caught to Dennis Diffenderfer.

I, Mary Jane Grimm, being of some mind and streamlined body, will my blonde hair to Sue Ifer who would have enough nerve to put a black streak in it, and my ability to drive our "beat-up" Plymouth to my beloved brother "Bobby" to keep it in the family.

I, Phyllis Ellison, being of sound mind and body, will my privilege to drive a 1957 Mercury and graduate in the same year to Floyd Harshman.

I, Janice Bates, being of doubtful mind and body, will my fondness for boys named Don to Annie Bryant and my "love" for kid brothers to Dennis Diffenderfer.

I, George Carnes, being of mighty mind and powerful body, will my little-boy looks which the girls like to mother to Richard Henley and my ability to jitterbug to Tom Swigert.

I, Jill Harshman, being of brilliant mind and classy body, will my remains after the annual is published to the nearest hospital.

In witness hereof we, the undersigned attorneys do fix our names this 27th day of April in the year of our Lord 1957.

THE HALLS OF IVY

Oh, we love The Halls of Ivy that surround us here today, and we will not forget tho' we be far far away. To the hallow'd Halls of Ivy Ev'ry voice will bid farewell, and shimmer off in twilight like the old vesper bell. One day a hush will fall, The footsteps of us all will echo down the hall and disappear, But as we sadly start our journeys far apart, A part of ev'ry heart will linger here in the sacred Halls of Ivy where we've lived and learned to know that thru' the years we'll see you in the sweet after glow.
